Greenbugs, Grain Mites Reported In Several Area Wheat Fields

Heavy infestations of greenbugs and grain mites have been reported in several fields of wheat in the Hamlin, Tuxedo and Plainview areas of Jones County, according to information this week from Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. The insects are appearing in 60-75% of the fields, says Clayton, but some fields are infested much worse than others and control measures will be necessary on the heavily infested areas at this time.

Greenbugs cause more damage and develop more rapidly when small grains are suffering from moisture and when the winters are mild. The insects reproduce rather rapidly at temperatures between 55-75 degrees F., whereas its natural enemies reproduce very slowly when temperatures are below 65 degrees F.

The first symptoms in the field, says Clayton, will be a yellowing of the leaves which may spread over a large area of the field in a short time.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Just in case you were a newcomer to this part of the state, and had heard of the dust storms, you evidently learned the past week what was meant, when people spoke of them. If you are an old timer in these parts, you know that time of year is well on its way again when every thing that isn't tied down goes blowing away. If you are out at night, and superstitious, you could easily mistake some of the huge tumbling weeds for ghosts, as they come rolling after you. Heard a colored man tell one time about his first cotton picking trip to the Plains. He and a friend were out on the road walking in the wee hours of the night when they spied this thing chasing them. He said they almost ran themselves to death, trying to get away before they realized it was a big tumbling weed.

Rev. Kenneth Leverett went to Dallas to the Evangelism Conference with Rev. Bill Erwin, pastor of North Central Church, last week and he came home telling of the wonderful time they had. They met many of the former pastors of the area since there were over two thousand attended. The emphasis of the conference was on "Holy Spirit in Evangelism." Some of the highlights reported by Rev. Leverett were, the music brought by the choir of the First Baptist Church of Dallas, one night, music by the Sagamore Hill Baptist choir another night. The group, called The Singing Churchmen, composed

Smiling Bluebirds See Slides of Europe

The Smiling Bluebirds met with their leaders, Mrs. C. H. Tugwell and Mrs. Bill Early Tuesday, Jan. 19 in the Tugwell home.

After refreshments were served, colored slides of Europe were shown.

Those present were Kelly Bradshaw, Rita Casey, Donna Early, Lynda Harrison, Kimi McHaffey, Vickie Ponder, Jacqueline Preiss, Rebecca Server, Kathy Smith, Debra St. Clair, Denise Tugwell, Lisa Walker and Debbie Hix.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford will not attend funeral services since they aren't feeling up to making the trip, especially in the winter.

Mrs. Elmer Joiner and Mrs. Noble Greer of Hamlin attended the Home Demonstration Council in Anson last week as representatives from the Friendship Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones spent Sunday afternoon with the Fred Rosenbaums. Tuesday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Nolen Sullivan of Lubbock.

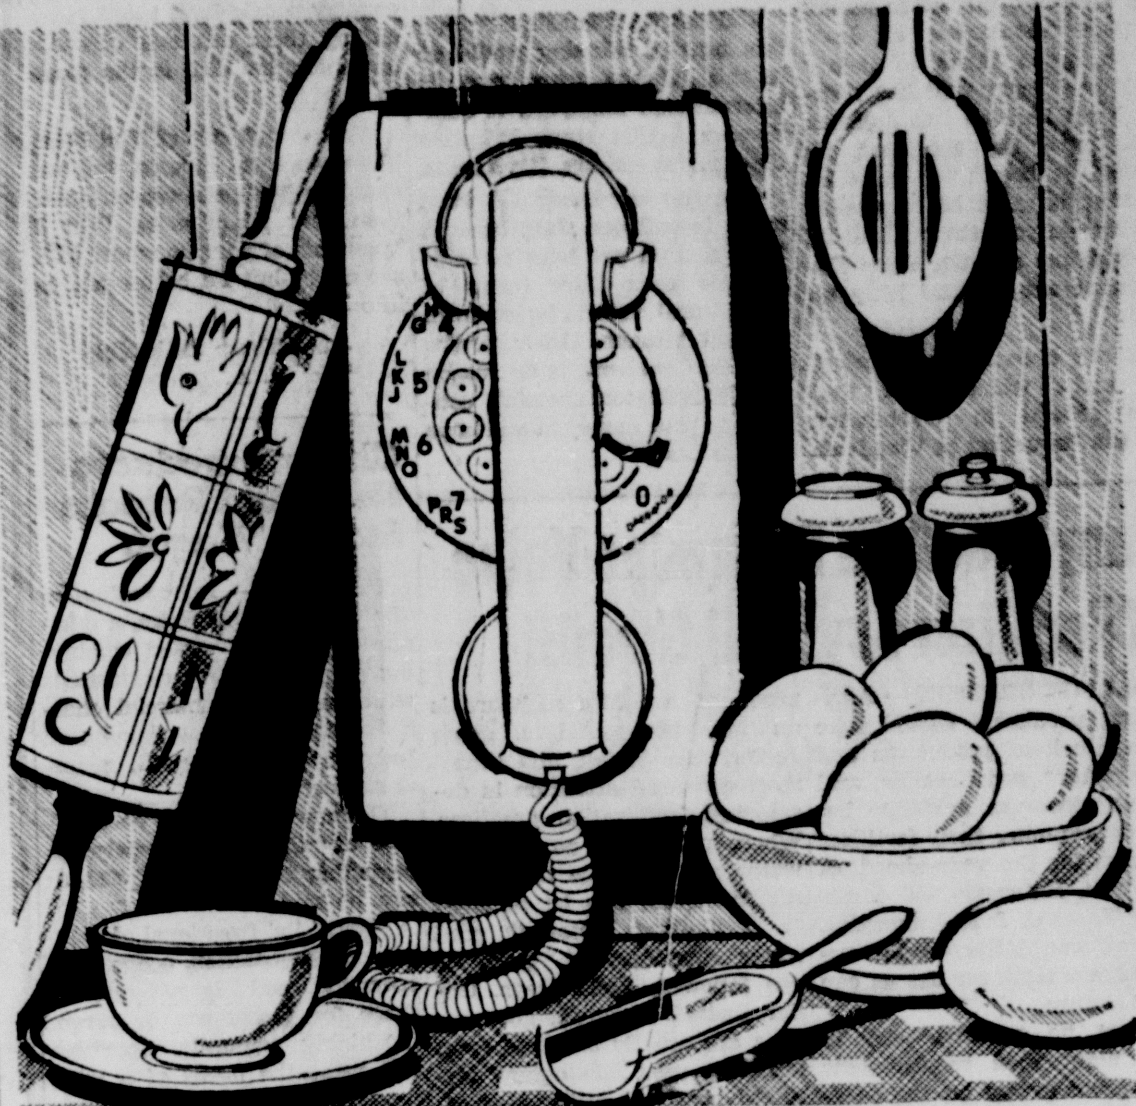

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford visited last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin were Saturday night visitors of the Elmer Joiners.

The first lesson of the Study Course was held Sunday night in the training union period. A double period will be held Wednesday night but a recess will be held and cake and coffee served.

For the benefit of those that were residents of our community many years ago, will tell that a letter was received by a friend of Mrs. Susie Har-ber recently in which Mrs. Harber reports that she had been in Dallas for several months where her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elmer Harber, had been in the hospital for three months. She makes her home in Abilene, where she has lived alone since the death of her husband. She also said that she would be 90 years old her next birthday, but she is still well and active. We all remember her with love, she was an asset to our community in the years gone by.

Neinda Philosopher Finds Out About Viet Nam, But Wants A Better Reason for Pulling Out

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 turns his thoughts to Viet Nam this week.

Dear editor:

Speaking of Viet Nam, I don't even know which direction the place is from here and as for not knowing what's going on over there, I can hold my own with anybody, but after seeing the place mentioned at least half a dozen times in nearly every newspaper that has turned up out here on this Johnson grass farm for the past six months, it began to dawn on me that it must be important that we do something about it, although me and the State Department are a little hazy on what.

At any rate I was surprised last night when I read that some official in Washington said the "situation in Viet Nam is a mess and we ought to pull out."

I do not understand this type of thinking. What I mean is, without going into the merits of whether we ought to pull out, stay, or deny we ever got in, I can't understand the reasoning of a man who says we ought to pull out because it's a mess and we don't know what to do with it.

You can see immediately what this type of thinking would do to this Johnson grass farm. In international language, it qualifies as a Viet Nam. It meets those terms exactly. It's a mess.

But the last thing I'd want to do is pull out. Just because the situation out here remains hopeless even after teams of agricultural experts have shown up and wracked their brains over the problems, is no reason why Washington shouldn't continue to pour money in and hope for the best.

Or take the average big city. You'll find it's way in debt, the streets need patching, there's no place to park, crime is rampant, schools are crowded, there's not nearly enough tax money — in fact, there are so many problems nobody knows the answers to you could very well say the situation is hopeless. You think the people there ought to pull out? After we country people have spent years culling them out and convincing them the city is the place to live?

We can pull out of Viet Nam if we want to, I guess, but we ought to find some reason other than that it's a mess. Why I know lots of parents whose kids are a . . . but I'd better not go into that.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Chevy Introduces New Dual Purpose Station Wagon

DETROIT — Introduction of the Chevrolet Sportvan, a dual-purpose station wagon combining passenger car appointments with durable commercial chassis components, was announced today by Larry Averill, general sales manager.

The new vehicle will be available at Chevrolet dealerships beginning the middle of February, he said.

"With its functional design, rugged construction, economical operation, and large interior space for passengers or cargo, the highly versatile Sportvan will meet the needs of a wide range of customers," Averill added. "It will seat up to eight adults in comfort or, with one or both optional rear seats removed, carry up to a ton of cargo."

"It is especially well suited to the needs of large families, suburbanites, sportsmen, small business operators who need one vehicle for both family and commercial use, and a host of other groups, including multi-car families."

With its 90-inch wheelbase and overall length of only 14 feet, the Sportvan is easy to drive and park, yet it has 211 cubic feet of usable interior space because of its efficient forward-control design which features a body utilizing virtually the full length of the vehicle.

Many Practices Determine Value Of Fertilizer Says Soil Chemist

COLLEGE STATION — Agricultural producers should take a close look at production and management practices as well as the resources available before determining their fertilizer program for the year ahead. C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist at Texas A & M University, says all can influence the returns from fertilizer use as can soil moisture.

Crops, he explains, vary in their plant food requirements even when grown on the same type of soil. He cites Coastal Bermudagrass as an example. It has a very high production potential, hence a different food requirement when compared with other grasses. Its potential cannot be realized under low fertility.

Crop management can also affect potential yields. Late planting or a poor stand resulting from bad seed or the lack of an adequate weed control program can also cut production and reduce the chances for profit from fertilizer usage, says the chemist.

In addition to management practices, available moisture is an important yield affecting factor, says Welch, and should receive careful attention in developing fertilization practices. Where unlimited amounts of water are available for irrigation, moisture can be removed as a limiting factor if good water management practices are followed, Welch says. Under limited moisture, good results are usually obtained from fertilizer use. Adequately fertilized crops can utilize very efficiently limited amounts of moisture but past experience along with subsoil moisture prospects can aid in determining production goals based on moisture.

The fourth factor affecting yields is the soil. A reliable soil test will provide information on the level of plant food in the soil and serve as a guide for selecting the most profitable rate and ratio of plant foods needed in the fertilizer. Merely applying fertilizer does not insure an adequate supply of plant food. The composition of the fertilizer must fit the soil and crop requirements if maximum profits are to be realized, concludes the chemist.

Take a Second Look

On your first look, you may think that this little girl is riding a rocking horse, but look again. It is not a rocking horse but a little donkey.

About animals now, and children. Donkeys were one of the first animals to be tamed by man, and are gentle animals when they are not practicing the quality of being stubborn.

The quality of gentleness somehow reminds us of our Saviour, the Wonderful One

Parents, teach your children about Jesus, who admonished us to let the little children come unto Him. Our Lord would remind us that the little ones are precious to the Father. We invite you to take the children to church this week.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

PIPER PATTY—

Junior Class Play Set for Tonight

By Nancy Ford
Carolyn Reynolds
Marolyn Reynolds

Monday blew in with a real West Texas sandstorm. Gritty desks and whistling windows reminded all students that maybe winter is over and spring is on its way. However, some are not looking forward to spring for one reason—finals. Midterm has been over only a couple of weeks, and some are already dreading finals. This time maybe more will study and not have to suffer the consequences of their procrastination.

—hhs—

Wednesday, January 20, the HHS students watched history in the making on a brand new color television. Joe Hudspeth donated the use of the set in order for the students to watch the inauguration. From the beginning to the end, everyone sat spell-bound by the impressive event. For a long time one will forget that he saw and heard President Johnson take his oath of office. Nor will he forget the words of the Mormon choir, "This Is My Country, Land of the Free." For this courtesy the students and faculty of HHS again want to say thank you, Mr. Hudspeth.

—hhs—

Almost all of the faculty as well as a number of HHS students were present for the Annual BCD Banquet last Friday night. Although Dr. Charles Jarvis was highly entertaining, he gave us food for thought in his more serious moments. The Stage Band, under the direction of Mr. Jones was also a great success—particularly Mr. Jones' rendition of "Sugar Blues" on his trumpet and a new number entitled "Occasional Man."

Friday the Pipers, A and B, and the Piperettes journey to Haskell. With the last few games approaching, the HHS teams are eager for another victory to put in their victory bag. Every Indian is going to be on the warpath trying to scalp a Piper. Wonder how an Indian scalp looks! Let's back our teams and go to Haskell Friday night!

—hhs—

The Hamlin Chapter of FFA boys have added another honor to their long list—fifth place in the competition for the cleanest pig pins at the Abilene Fat Stock Show. The boys are quite proud of it and are hoping to be a little cleaner and win a higher rating next year.

Herman White's pig won the Grand Champion Barrow of the Abilene show.

—hhs—

Tonight the packed auditorium of Hamlin High will witness the hysterical Junior Play entitled "You Can't Take It With You." Don't miss this rare occasion to see the hit at the HHS auditorium at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moore, Nicky and Ned, were in Fort Worth this week end to visit their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Joe D. Hymer, Mike, Stephanie and Mitch.

County Salary Fund Income Drops As Expenses Continue Up

Less income but more expense — bane of every businessman — has also been a thorn in the side of Jones County insofar as the officers salary fund is concerned.

The officers salary fund is hardly what the term implies. All county officers are not paid from the fund and some who are not officers in the true sense of the word do get paid from this fund. What's more, all money in the fund is not paid out in salaries. In fact, expenses of the various offices, including the purchase of equipment, must be met out of the fund.

And these salaries and expenses are simply more than there is money available from the various fees which go into the fund. Due to the increased cost of living, costs continue to rise. Salaries are high and supplies cost more.

On the other hand, activity in the county is less than in previous years and fees of office are lower as a result.

Out of this fund salaries of the county treasurer, assessor-collector, county clerk, district clerk, sheriff, attorney and the justices of the peace and constables are paid, as well as the deputies and secretaries in the various offices.

The county judge and county auditor are paid out of the general fund while the commissioners draw their pay from the road and bridge fund.

As an example as to how hard the fund can be hit for equipment, last year a new bookkeeping machine was bought for the tax office at a cost in excess of $8,000.

In 1961 total revenue for the fund was $92,305.55 while expenses were $104,229.54. The following year, 1962, was a "good year" with revenue in excess of expenses. This, it was explained was due to a large extent to an increase in arrests caused by Taylor County citizens driving to Stamford and southern Haskell County to purchase liquor.

Revenue for 1962 was $104,727.38, with expenses $101,204.22. The following year, however, the situation was reversed. Revenue dropped to $90,857.38 while expenses went up to $106,496.44.

Although a complete breakdown is not available for the past year, it is known that the fund closed out Dec. 31, in the red to the tune of $27,029.82. The year started with a balance of $1,316.49 but receipts dropped to $89,742.67 while expenditures jumped to a new high of $118,088.98.

County Auditor Carl Savage said Monday that money will be coming into the fund at a rapid pace when automobile tags go on sale but if that did not supply enough to meet current needs, the commissioners court would have to transfer funds from the general fund as has been done in the past.

The following tables show sources of income for the fund

County Agent Awarded for Work In Sreworm Eradication Effort

A certificate of appreciation has been presented to Kirby Clayton, Jones County agricultural agent, for his active support of the screwworm eradication program. The presentation was made by Charles T. Myatt, chairman of the county screwworm eradication committee.

Myatt commended Mr. Clayton for devoting many long hours to the popular eradication project. He noted that the agent has been the key man in the county concerned with screwworm eradication activities, serving as an important link between program officials and local farmers and ranchers. Along with keeping stockmen informed on all aspects of the program and cooperating with eradication project. He noted that the agent has been the key man in the county concerned with screwworm eradication activities, serving as an important link between program officials and local farmers and ranchers. Along with keeping stockmen informed on all aspects of the program and cooperating with eradication work-activities within the county, the agent also served as advisor to the committee which coordinated local participation in the successful drive to raise more than $3 million from the livestock industry to get the campaign started nearly three years ago.

"The screwworm eradication program could not have attained its present high level of success if it had not had the wholehearted cooperation and assistance of the local county agricultural agent," Myatt said.

Dolph Brisco, Jr., of Uvalde, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation which spearheaded the Southwest-wide fund drive, recently presented a plaque to all the county agricultural agents in Texas at the State Conference of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A & M University.

"Never before in the history of the livestock industry have the producers of this state been so indebted to such a small group," Brisco said, in pointing out the contributions county agents have made toward success of the eradication program.

Greenbugs, Grain Mites Reported In Several Area Wheat Fields

Heavy infestations of greenbugs and grain mites have been reported in several fields of wheat in the Hamlin, Tuxedo and Plainview areas of Jones County, according to information this week from Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. The insects are appearing in 60-75% of the fields, says Clayton, but some fields are infested much worse than others and control measures will be necessary on the heavily infested areas at this time.

Greenbugs cause more damage and develop more rapidly when small grains are suffering from moisture and when the winters are mild. The insects reproduce rather rapidly at temperatures between 55-75 degrees F., whereas its natural enemies reproduce very slowly when temperatures are below 65 degrees F.

The first symptoms in the field, says Clayton, will be a yellowing of the leaves which may spread over a large area of the field in a short time.

Jarvis, in his humorous address, said, "Blessed is the man who can laugh at himself. You've got to be able to laugh at yourself. God pity you if you can't."

In one of his moments of seriousness, Dr. Jarvis told the group: "Your community can walk, run, fly or die. It's up to you."

Dr. Jarvis is a San Marcos dentist. Leldon Clifton was master of ceremonies. Dr. Jarvis was introduced by Supt. C. F. Cook, chairman of the banquet.

Merger of Stamford and Memphis PCA's Approved by Stockholders

A merger of the Stamford and Memphis Production Credit Associations was approved by stockholders of the two agricultural credit cooperatives in meetings held recently in the two towns. The new organization being created by consolidation of these two PCA's will be known as the "Rolling Plains Production Credit Association."

The headquarters office will be located in Stamford. All other offices presently serving the membership of the two associations will be maintained as they now are. These offices are located in Anson, Haskell, Munday, Spur, Paducah, Matador, Memphis and Wellington. The merger of the two associations was set for February 28, 1965 and when it becomes effective will create one of the largest Production Credit Associations, area-wide, in Texas. The counties making up the area are: Shackelford, Jones, Haskell, Stonewall, Kent, Dickens, King, Knox, Ford, Cottle, Motley, Hall, Childress, Hardeman, Collingsworth, Donkey and that portion of Briscoe lying below the caprock. The Boards of Directors now serving the two associations will be consolidated into a 10-man board upon merger and will serve until the next annual stockholder's meeting which will be held early in 1966. James Van Pelt, who had been manager of the Memphis Association, resigned as of January 15, 1965 to take a position with the Amarillo PCA. J. L. Hill, Jr., manager of the Stamford Association, has also assumed acting management of the Memphis PCA and will continue as general manager of the Rolling Plains PCA when the merger is completed.

Total assets of the two organizations as of December 31, 1964 were $9,011,685.00 with a combined net worth of $1,647,854.00. Total loans outstanding on the same date amounted to $7,217,895.00.

February 8 to Open Seven Week Feed Grain Signup Period

Farmers will have an opportunity to sign up in the 1965 Feed Grain Program early in February, according to J. Noel Weaver, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. The signup period will be for 7 weeks, from February 8 through March 26.

During the signup period, winter wheat producers who signed up in the wheat program last fall may change their intentions, except that in winter wheat areas growers may not overproduce wheat and store it under bond unless they stated their intentions to do this at the time of the sign up last fall.

As in previous years, Chairman Weaver explained, the feed grain program will be voluntary and each operator of farms growing one of the three feed grains covered by the program about whether to take part. The program is available for corn, grain sorghum and barley.

Farmers who participate in the program will be eligible for diversion and price-support payments, and for price - support loans on their entire 1965 production of the three grains. The price - support payments will be made to participants whether the feed grain produced in 1965 is fed on the farm, sold, or placed under a price-support loan.

To take part in the feed grain program, the farmer will agree to take out of production and devote to an approved conservation use at least 20 per cent of the total feed grain base. Maximum diversion is 50 per cent of the base or 25 acres if this is larger. The reduction may be on any of the three acreages, and the diversion payment will be based on the crop diverted.

Diversion payments, if less than 40 per cent of the base is actually diverted, will be made at one-fifth of the County Support rate for the first 20 per cent diversion, and at one-half the support rate for the normal production from the remaining percentage. If 40 per cent or more of the base is diverted for payment, the higher rate will apply to all the acreage diverted.

Bridge Results

Out-of-town players took top honors at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Hamlin Duplicate Bridge Club.

Mrs. Grady Bowdry of Stamford and Preston Morrow of Rotan were first; Bobby Crowley and Harvey Elkins were second and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Altheimer were third.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Just in case you were a new comer to this part of the state, and had heard of the dust storms, you evidently learned the past week what was meant, when people spoke of them. If you are an old timer in these parts, you knew that time of year is well on its way again when every thing that isn't tied down goes blowing away. If you are out at night, and superstitious, you could easily mistake some of the huge tumbling weeds for ghosts, as they come rolling after you. Heard a colored man tell one time about his first cotton picking trip to the Plains. He and a friend were out on the road walking in the wee hours of the night when they spied this thing chasing them. He said they almost ran themselves to death, trying to get away before they realized it was a big tumbling weed.

Rev. Kenneth Leverett went to Dallas to the Evangelism Conference with Rev. Bill Erwin, pastor of North Central Church, last week and he came home telling of the wonderful time they had. They met many of the former pastors of the area since there were over two thousand attended. The emphasis of the conference was on "Holy Spirit in Evangelism". Some of the highlights reported by Rev. Leverett were, the music brought by the choir of the First Baptist Church of Dallas, one night, music by the Saga-more Hill Baptist choir another night. The group, called The Singing Churchmen, composed of the music directors in attendance, must have been something to hear, as they rendered special music for the conference. To quote Rev. Leverett, "As the people met and worshiped, God's presence was felt. A fine thought for life, expressed by one of the speakers, would be that many of us need to quit praying until our life catches up with our prayers. Then we can feel the importance and see God working in men."

The friends of the Flavil Holmes family were stunned last Thursday morning when they learned that their son, Jimmy Holmes, had suffered a severe heart attack at his home in Big Spring in the early morning hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes left for Big Spring immediately, finding a very sick son upon their arrival. The critical period had passed and since he is not worse, but improving, the doctors say that, as of Sunday afternoon, he was doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances. He will be in the hospital several weeks and off work longer, but they are hopeful for a complete recovery.

He is in the Malone-Hogan Hospital, Room 129, Big Spring, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes came home Sunday afternoon, bringing the little daughter, Melody, home with them. They will go back in a few days, if he continues to get along alright, for he cannot have any visitors until more time has passed, but his mother stated that he would enjoy cards or letters from friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright went to Big Spring, both Friday afternoon and Sunday, to see her brother, Jimmy Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry were very happy to be recovered from their colds enough to be in church Sunday morning, and all were happy to see them back.

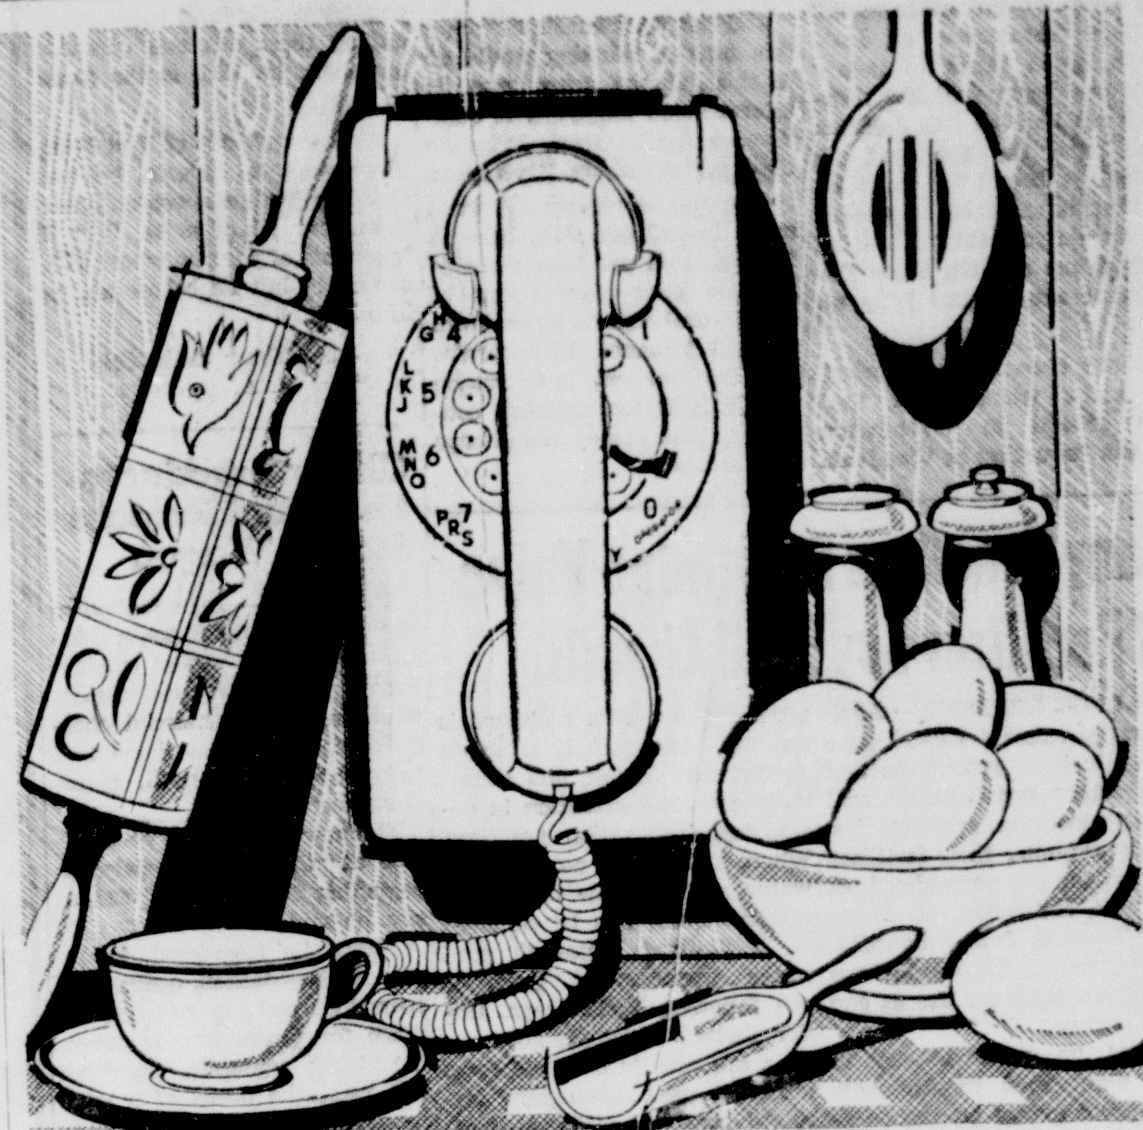

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford received word Sunday morning, just before leaving for church, that one of Mr. Ford's nephew's wife had passed away in Fort Worth Sunday morning. She was talking over the telephone when she was stricken with a heart attack and died.

Mrs. Elmer Joiner and Mrs. Noble Greer of Hamlin attended the Home Demonstration Council in Anson last week as representatives from the Friendship Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones spent Sunday afternoon with the Fred Rosenbaums. Tuesday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Nolen Sullivan of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford visited last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin were Saturday night visitors of the Elmer Joiners. The first lesson of the Study Course was held Sunday night in the training union period. A double period will be held Wednesday night but a recess will be held and cake and coffee served. For the benefit of those that were residents of our community many years ago, will tell that a letter was received by a friend of Mrs. Susie Harber recently in which Mrs. Harber reports that she had been in Dallas for several months where her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Elmer Harber, had been in the hospital for three months. She makes her home in Abilene, where she has lived alone since the death of her husband. She also said that she would be 90 years old her next birthday, but she is still well and active. We all remember her with love, she was an asset to our community in the years gone by.

Neinda Philosopher Finds Out About Viet Nam, But Wants A Better Reason for Pulling Out

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 turns his thoughts to Viet Nam this week.

Dear editor:

Speaking of Viet Nam, I don't even know which direction the place is from here and as for not knowing what's going on over there, I can hold my own with anybody, but after seeing the place mentioned at least half a dozen times in nearly every newspaper that has turned up out here on this Johnson grass farm for the past six months, it began to dawn on me that it must be important that we do something about it, although me and the State Department are a little hazy on what.

At any rate I was surprised last night when I read that some official in Washington said the "situation in Viet Nam is a mess and we ought to pull out."

I do not understand this type of thinking. What I mean is, without going into the merits of whether we ought to pull out, stay, or deny we ever got in, I can't understand the reasoning of a man who says we ought to pull out because it's a mess and we don't know what to do with it.

You can see immediately what this type of thinking would do to this Johnson grass farm. In international language, it qualifies as a Viet Nam. It meets those terms exactly. It's a mess.

But the last thing I'd want to do is pull out. Just because the situation out here remains hopeless even after teams of agricultural experts have shown up and wracked their brains over the problems, is no reason why Washington shouldn't continue to pour money in and hope for the best.

Or take the average big city. You'll find it's way in debt, the streets need patching, there's no place to park, crime is rampant, schools are crowded, there's not nearly enough tax money — in fact, there are so many problems nobody knows the answers to you could very well say the situation is hopeless. You think the people there ought to pull out? After we country people have spent years culling them out and convincing them the city is the place to live?

We can pull out of Viet Nam if we want to, I guess, but we ought to find some reason other than that it's a mess. Why I know lots of parents whose kids are a . . . but I'd better not go into that.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Chevy Introduces New Dual Purpose Station Wagon

DETROIT — Introduction of the Chevrolet Sportvan, a dual-purpose station wagon combining passenger car appointments with durable commercial chassis components, was announced today by Larry Averill, general sales manager.

The new vehicle will be available at Chevrolet dealerships beginning the middle of February, he said.

"With its functional design, rugged construction, economical operation, and large interior space for passengers or cargo, the highly versatile Sportvan will meet the needs of a wide range of customers," Averill added. "It will seat up to eight adults in comfort or, with one or both optional rear seats removed, carry up to a ton of cargo."

"It is especially well suited to the needs of large families, suburbanites, sportsmen, small business operators who need one vehicle for both family and commercial use, and a host of other groups, including multi-car families."

With its 90-inch wheelbase and overall length of only 14 feet, the Sportvan is easy to drive and park, yet it has 211 cubic feet of usable interior space because of its efficient forward-control design which features a body utilizing virtually the full length of the vehicle.

Take a Second Look

On your first look, you may think that this little girl is riding a rocking horse, but look again. It is not a rocking horse but a little donkey.

About animals now, and children. Donkeys were one of the first animals to be tamed by man, and are gentle animals when they are not practicing the quality of being stubborn.

The quality of gentleness somehow reminds us of our Saviour, the Wonderful One

Parents, teach your children about Jesus, who admonished us to let the little children come unto Him. Our Lord would remind us that the little ones are precious to the Father. We invite you to take the children to church this week.

PIPER PATT— Junior Class Play Set for Tonight

By Nancy Ford
Carolyn Reynolds
Marolyn Reynolds
Monday blew in with a real West Texas sandstorm. Gritty desks and whistling windows reminded all students that maybe winter is over and spring is on its way. However, some are not looking forward to spring for one reason—finals. Midterm has been over only a couple of weeks, and some are already dreading finals. This time maybe more will study and not have to suffer the consequences of their procrastination.

—hhs—
Wednesday, January 20, the HHS students watched history in the making on a brand new color television. Joe Hudspeth loaned the use of the set in order for the students to watch the inauguration. From the beginning to the end, everyone sat spell-bound by the impressive event. For a long time one will forget that he saw and heard President Johnson take his oath of office. Nor will he forget the words of the Mormon choir, "This Is My Country, Land of the Free." For this courtesy the students and faculty of HHS again want to say thank you, Mr. Hudspeth.

—hhs—
Almost all of the faculty as well as a number of HHS students were present for the Annual BCD Banquet last Friday night. Although Dr. Charles Jarvis was highly entertaining, he gave us food for thought in his more serious moments. The Stage Band, under the direction of Mr. Jones was also a great success—particularly Mr. Jones' rendition of "Sugar Blues" on his trumpet and a new number entitled "Occasional Man."

Friday the Pipers, A and B, and the Piperettes journey to Haskell. With the last few games approaching, the HHS teams are eager for another victory to put in their victory bag. Every Indian is going to be on the warpath trying to scalp a Piper. Wonder how an Indian scalp looks! Let's back our teams and go to Haskell Friday night!

—hhs—
The Hamlin Chapter of FFA boys have added another honor to their long list—fifth place in the competition for the cleanest pig pins at the Abilene Fat Stock Show. The boys are quite proud of it and are hoping to be a little cleaner and win a higher rating next year.

Herman White's pig won the Grand Champion Barrow of the Abilene show.

—hhs—
Tonight the packed auditorium of Hamlin High will witness the hysterical Junior Play entitled "You Can't Take It With You." Don't miss this rare occasion to see the hit at the HHS auditorium at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moore, Nicky and Ned, were in Fort Worth this week end to visit their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Joe D. Hymer, Mike, Stephanie and Mitch.

County Salary Fund Income Drops As Expenses Continue Up

Less income but more expense — bane of every businessman — has also been a thorn in the side of Jones County insofar as the officers salary fund is concerned.

The officers salary fund is hardly what the term implies. All county officers are not paid from the fund and some who are not officers in the true sense of the word do get paid from this fund. What's more, all money in the fund is not paid out in salaries. In fact, expenses of the various offices, including the purchase of equipment, must be met out of the fund.

And these salaries and expenses are simply more than there is money available from the various fees which go into the fund. Due to the increased cost of living, costs continue to rise. Salaries are high and supplies cost more.

On the other hand, activity in the county is less than in previous years and fees of office are lower as a result.

Out of this fund salaries of the county treasurer, assessor-collector, county clerk, district clerk, sheriff, attorney and the justices of the peace and constables are paid, as well as the deputies and secretaries in the various offices.

The county judge and county auditor are paid out of the general fund while the commissioners draw their pay from the road and bridge fund.

As an example as to how hard the fund can be hit for equipment, last year a new bookkeeping machine was bought for the tax office at a cost in excess of $8,000.

In 1961 total revenue for the fund was $92,305.55 while expenses were $104,229.54. The following year, 1962, was a "good year" with revenue in excess of expenses. This, it was explained, was due to a large extent to an increase in arrests caused by Taylor County citizens driving to Stamford and southern Haskell County to purchase liquor.

Revenue for 1962 was $104,727.38, with expenses $101,204.22. The following year, however, the situation was reversed. Revenue dropped to $90,857.38 while expenses went up to $106,496.44.

Although a complete breakdown is not available for the past year, it is known that the fund closed out Dec. 31, in the red to the tune of $27,029.82. The year started with a balance of $1,316.49 but receipts dropped to $89,742.67 while expenditures jumped to a new high of $118,088.98.

County Auditor Carl Savage said Monday that money will be coming into the fund at a rapid pace when automobile tags go on sale but if that did not supply enough to meet current needs, the commissioners court would have to transfer funds from the general fund as has been done in the past.
